

Andrew Cormier Director of Community Relations

Andrew Cormier is a New Bedford native who is excited to be a part of the Bay Sox. He graduated from Southern New Hampshire University in 2009. For the past four years he has worked in SNHU's Division II Athletic Department, the past three years as a student supervisor. Some of his duties included overseeing the opening and closing of the equipment room, setting up the facilities for athletic events and other non-sport related events, and managing the athletic equipment for various SNHU teams.

Andrew joined Phi Delta Theta Fraternity in his sophomore year and has served as the fraternity's treasurer and president over the past two years. He is also engaged to be married to Marcie Pereira in the summer of 2010.

Andrew loves all of the New England sports teams along with the Florida Gators and UCONN Huskies. In his free time he likes to play baseball, softball, basketball, and racquetball.
