

Microenterprise Development Institute (MDI) Ghana 2009

Sunday, March 22 through Saturday, April 4 – Ghana, Africa

Tools of the Trade for African Development Practitioners

The MDI Ghana will take place at the Ghana Institute of Management and Public Administration, located eight miles north of Accra near the Kotoka International Airport.

Tuition	One Week	Two Weeks
Early bird registration before Jan. 15, 2009	USD $1,100	USD $2,100
Regular tuition Jan. 16 to March 15, 2009	USD $1,300	USD $2,500

Please visit www.mdi-africa.org online for institute details.

For over 10 years the MDI has offered a world-class, practitioner-focused training program consistently rated as very good to excellent by attendees. The MDI delivers:

- faculty who are the field's best practitioner/trainers.
- a master's-level academic credit option.
- takeaway tool kits, manuals and access to a worldwide practitioner network.

The MDI Ghana 2009 will offer courses in microfinance financial and risk management, investor readiness, consumer protection, policy and regulation, community-managed microfinance, pro-poor enterprise development, climate change and sustainable community development, and more including field trips to see local microfinance and enterprise development projects.

In sponsorship with

GHAMFIN

Ghana Microfinance
Institutions Network

SNHU School of Community
Economic Development

A School of Southern New Hampshire University

snhu.edu
on campus. on location. online.

Southern New Hampshire University
Phone: 011.603.644.3124 | mdi@snhu.edu
www.mdi-africa.org