

Microenterprise Development Institute (MDI) New Hampshire 2009

Monday, June 8, through Saturday, June 20 – Manchester, N.H.

Tools of the Trade for Development Practitioners

The MDI New Hampshire will take place at Southern New Hampshire University, located about an hour north of Boston in Manchester, N.H.

Tuition	One Week	Two Weeks
Early bird registration before March 31, 2009	USD $1,300	USD $2,300
Regular tuition April 1, to May 15, 2009	USD $1,500	USD $2,500

Please visit www.mdi-nh.org online for institute and housing details.

Courses include:

- Pro-Poor Enterprise Development – Principles and Practices – Linda Jones
- Current Issues in Microfinance and Microenterprise Development – Malcolm Harper
- MFIs Financial Management, Monitoring and Evaluation – Kadry Furany
- Nuts and Bolts of MF – Risks, Plans, Management, and Monitoring – Michael Spingler
- Development as a Tool of Conflict Resolution – Chris Mburu
- Cooperative Development – Christine Clamp
- Microfinance and Enterprise Development in Emergency Environments Timothy Nourse

Master's-level academic credit option.
Register for one or two weeks.

Three Knowledge Tracks: Introductory and Advanced

- Microfinance
- Pro-poor Enterprise Development
- Community Economic Development

SNHU School of Community
Economic Development

A School of Southern New Hampshire University

snhu.edu
on campus. on location. online.

Southern New Hampshire University
Phone: 011.603.644.3124 | mdi@snhu.edu
www.mdi-nh.org