Craig and Mary: Stepping Up

Alumni couple leads Southern New Hampshire University's annual fundraising efforts.

In July, alumni Craig '80 and Mary '79 Ahlquist became the university's first official SNHU Fund chairs. Working closely with the Institutional Advancement office at SNHU, they will advise and advocate for the SNHU Fund — unrestricted dollars vital to the livelihood of the university.

The Ahlquists view their two-year volunteer term as a real “hands-on” chance to give back to the university.

“SNHU gave us the tools to build successful careers and enjoy a fulfilling lifestyle. By supporting the SNHU Fund, we are helping the university to continue this important role, while enhancing the SNHU experience for future alumni,” said Craig and Mary.

Donors for many years, the couple is eager to extend the challenge of involvement to every SNHU alumna and alumnus. To learn more about giving back, go to snhu.edu/alumni.

Gifts of all sizes are deeply appreciated by the university and are recognized in the Honor Roll of Donors, published each fall. Donors are recognized within the following categories:

The SNHU Fund

The SNHU Fund encourages alumni, parents, and friends to make an investment in the future of the university. The SNHU Fund provides resources to offer need-based scholarships; build support and sustain programs; attract and retain quality faculty; and enhance and maintain 21st century facilities. The SNHU Fund focuses on acquiring regular, yearly contributions, creating a dependable and very important source of support for the university and its students.

Why I give...

“I give back because I want others to have the same opportunity for success that my SNHU education has given me.”

Muriel Schadee '80
CPA, Partner
Nathan Wechsler & Company
Concord, N.H.

“I give to the university because I believe in the value of higher education and in the vision of SNHU. The success I have achieved in business stems largely from the solid educational foundation I received while attending SNHU. It is now time for me to give back so that others may realize their success.”
