Study Abroad with Southern New Hampshire University

Go live and study in Europe, Asia, Latin America, Africa, Australia or New Zealand for a semester or two, and you'll never see the world in the same way again. Gain new perspectives, meet fascinating people, experience unique cultures and visit unforgettable places.

Most corporate employers and government agencies are searching for university graduates with international experience and command of a foreign language. Did you know that your job prospects and lifelong earnings could be considerably enhanced by these two factors?

Now is the time to set your international education goals. You can choose from several options, including summer, semester and year-long programs offered at 38 universities in 25 countries around the world including Australia, Chile, China, Costa Rica, France, Germany, Ghana, India, Ireland, Italy, Mexico, New Zealand, Spain and The United Kingdom, where you can choose courses in almost any discipline in the Humanities and Social Sciences, Education, Business and Hospitality. Courses taken abroad can apply towards your major as well as to other graduation requirements.

You may wonder, can I afford this experience?

SNHU will allow your current financial aid and scholarships to apply to your study abroad. In most cases, all you will have to pay for is your airfare and your personal expenses. Student loans and travel scholarships like the Gilman, NSEP, Freeman and the Rotary, are available to qualifying students.

The International Affairs Office will place you in almost any country in the world to study the discipline of your choice at approximately the same costs as staying on the SNHU campus.
