A TRADITION STEEPED IN HISTORY

COMMENCEMENT PROCESSION

A procession of the various participants begins and ends our formal commencement ceremony. Individuals are arranged to reflect the order of academic rank in the hierarchy of the traditional European university.

At SNHU, the Mace Bearer leads the procession. He or she is followed by the Faculty Marshals, the Platform Party, and then the Faculty of the schools arranged in order of seniority, beginning with the senior faculty. The procession is concluded by the degree candidates. They enter in groups representing their schools/units, led by a gonfalon (flag) and walking in rank.

CEREMONIAL MACE

The mace was first used as a weapon. The word comes from the Latin 'mateola,' meaning mallet or staff. It consisted of a long club with a ball of steel or brass at one end. As newer weapons came into use, the mace lost its prime purpose as an instrument of war; however, it had become a symbol of authority and power. Universities in Europe with roots in the Middle Ages adopted maces as symbols of authority and unity. Since then, other institutions of higher learning have come to use the mace in their ceremonies.

Southern New Hampshire University commissioned David Elwell, a New Hampshire silversmith, to create a mace to commemorate the university's 50th anniversary commencement. This mace is made of brass, aluminum, copper, and bronze, with a staff of ebony and African padauk.

THE PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The Presidential Medallion, worn by the president with academic regalia, is a symbolic representation of the authority and responsibility vested by the university in the president. It is a symbol of office that dates from medieval times and is worn by the president at all ceremonial occasions.

The Presidential Medallion is a permanent possession of the university and is presented to successive presidents at their inaugurations by the chairman of the Board of Trustees. The chain and medallion are fabricated from sterling silver. The university emblem, in relief, is the central design on the medallion. It is surrounded by a border of entwined wires, similar in texture to the chain links, and finished with a square raised edge. The heavy, twisted links of the chain bear four oval plates on each side. The background of the entire piece is oxidized to highlight the relief design and textures. The names of those who have held the office are engraved on the reverse side of the medallion.

The Presidential Medallion was designed and fabricated in 1987 by award-winning New Hampshire metalsmith Jacquelyn Ferrency of Milford.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The academic costume worn today originated in the universities of the Middle Ages, when a warm gown and hood were useful for scholars and clerics in unheated buildings. The distinctive gowns served to set students apart from their fellow citizens, hence the perennial controversy between ‘town and gown.’

Until after the Civil War, students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1894. At that time it was decided that all robes would be black; bachelor’s gowns would have long, pointed sleeves; master’s gowns would have long, closed sleeves with slits for the arms at the elbows; and doctor’s gowns would have very full, bell-shaped sleeves, each with three velvet bands matching the velvet facing of the gown opening.

The length of hoods varies with the degree. The lining of the hood indicates the university by the colors. The border of the hood indicates the academic discipline in which the degree was earned.

Students who have studied abroad for one or more semesters will be wearing a sash with the colors of the flag of the country where they studied. The sashes are issued to signify the university’s commitment to provide students with opportunities for acquiring international and cross-cultural experience.

The colors for academic fields established by the American Council on Education include:

| Veterinary Science                | gray          |

(Caps and gowns representing degrees from foreign universities may be quite different from those described. The most obvious difference may be in the cap, which is often a soft, round hat of the style worn by medieval scholars.)

STUDENT SPEAKER

ELLE TIBBITTS

Bachelor of Science in Economics & Finance, Bachelor of Science in Math

Good morning, President LeBlanc, President Lynott, Distinguished Deans, Board of Trustees, Staff, Faculty, Friends, Family and my fellow graduates.

Thinking back to the first day of orientation, I remember being terrified to say my name. Eighteen years of nicknames and this was the first I had chosen for myself; I never said it out loud before. As introductions proceeded clockwise I wrung my hands discreetly certain I would stutter over the three syllables. My turn, here then gone and no one called me a fraud and I grew to like the taste of courage. I saw SNHU for what it is – a fresh start, an opportunity, where we decide our fate, and who we want to be. I chose to be Elle and chose to try for a math minor. Though I didn't consider myself smart, I was convinced I could work hard. The faculty and staff saw beyond our past-defined trajectory, they invested in our potential and in our 'wonder'. Four years of ample office hours, career fairs, and the space to create, clubs and programs and research, finds us here; at another opportunity for a new start to decide who we want to be. We may be staring down uncertainty and a lifetime of questioning, but we are prepared for the fight.

At SNHU, our wonder helped us make connections when our experiences seemed worlds apart. I am fortunate to have served four years working a job I love at the Center for Community Engaged Learning. I spent months at the International Institute of New Hampshire playing hide-n-seek in a conference room. There were three spots – the table, the fan, and the door – and thirteen hiders. Nepal,

Burundi, Iraq, America...regardless of where you are from hide-n-seek will always be exciting in a room with no place to hide. Through this, I began to understand the meaning of community.

Today, as we leave this community, we are prepared for all that's ahead, through the way we never stop wondering. From studying abroad or beach trips on weekdays, to championships and hard-earned A's, we developed a relentless need to know more, to fully experience every late night and early morning thrown our way. And today, a pause, a moment of applause, the payoff of questioning and of wonder, and never settling when there was a better choice to be made. For every independent effort claimed, each gain, insight, laugh, someone was there sharing in the hardship and the humor. Today is as much about our support system as it is about us – the ones who remembered our names and gave us a chance. They were there through every panicked phone call and coffee break, behind each recommendation and encouraging message. We chose to be brave. You inspired us to not fear falling. Thank you for believing in us, particularly when we didn't. Tomorrow we will chase the next adventure, reaching greater heights in altitude climbed or miles run or hours practicing and we will never stop redefining success. But today I am grateful to stand alongside nearly 900 scholars. Your focus and work ethic are inspiring, your joy infectious, and your presence a celebration.

Class of 2018, thank you for the wonder.

STUDENT SPEAKER

MOIRA COLLINS

Bachelor of Arts in English and Creative Writing

Good Afternoon, President. LeBlanc, Distinguished Deans, Board of Trustees, Faculty, Staff, Friends, Family and Fellow Graduates.

In Euclidean Geometry, a straight line is the shortest distance between two points. Math is not my strong suit, but Google assures me this is true. The normal academic trajectory of elementary school, middle school, high school, and four years at college works well for some; however, for me and for many of you, it didn't. For many of us, our journey here was not a straight line: instead, we took (what I like to call) "the scenic route". Whatever path we took, we are all here because Southern New Hampshire University gave us the tools, and the opportunity to challenge the status quo. So, congratulations my fellow graduates we did it.

Let that message sink in for a moment. We did it. You did it. We finished and graduated despite the pressures of full-time jobs, kids, hectic schedules, and family commitments. Everyone who walks across this stage today did it. Whether you followed that straight line and arrived here in four years or veered left and took the scenic route, you did it.

Our collective journey today reminds me of childhood. I grew up in a small coastal town in Massachusetts. One thing my family loved to do together was go clamming. It is hard, hot work out there in sun with no shade, digging up shellfish.

Sand and shell fragments have a habit of working their way under your fingernails slicing the skin underneath, and saltwater makes those cuts sting. Once we got home, it was all worth it because we ate fresh steamers we dug ourselves. But no matter how much we scrubbed and cleaned the clams there was always a little grit left inside.

Today I can order steamers at just about any restaurant. I know they will come to my table grit free, with drawn butter, garnished with fresh lemon. However, they won't taste as sweet to me as the clams I dug from the sand myself, because sometimes a little grit is a good thing, in fact it's what binds all of us together.

Every SNHU graduate demonstrated grit. You showed it by staying up late on Thursday or Sunday nights to finish discussion posts or submit assignments. You showed it by sacrificing time with your family and friends to finish up reading or research for your class. You showed it by doing it week after week; day after day. No matter what your line looked like, remember your victory today was long fought which makes it makes it sweet. Congratulations Southern New Hampshire Class of 2018. We did it! I am so proud of us and our accomplishments.

STUDENT SPEAKER

APRIL CUTLER

Bachelor of Science in Accounting

Good Afternoon, President LebBlanc, Distinguished Deans, Board of Trustees, Faculty, Staff, Friends, Family, and Fellow Graduates.

I stand before you on Mother's Day of all days. Before my family, peers, and esteemed faculty and staff. Major milestones have dictated an unwritten rule of order: primary school, secondary, college, career, marriage, and family. We've learned quickly that this order may not necessarily be realistic to everyone. Life happens. Sometimes kids precede marriage, marriages crumble, we lose loved ones, and sometimes college gets derailed.

During my journey at SNHU, I would often reminisce of memories with my mother where she frequently tried to convey the importance of education. I was young, naive, and of course a-know-it all. While her wisdom of the importance of education eventually influenced me, sadly she wouldn't be here to see her wisdom learned. Would a degree before family have been easier? Absolutely. Would a degree have been more valuable then? No.

Confucius is accredited with three methods of wisdom. "By three methods we may learn wisdom: first by reflection, which is the noblest; second, by imitation, which is the easiest; and third, by experience, which is the bitterest." I have exhaustively reflected on education since losing my mother and more so in the past few years during my journey with SNHU, only to arrive at her same conclusion about education. Imitation because standing here today in front of my children and husband; I will lead by example.

They have seen me struggle and sacrifice. They've witnessed firsthand my dedication, and determination, but never once witnessed me surrender to defeat. Finally, experience, SNHU has offered a rich and rewarding experience to our diverse class – whether you're juggling home, family, school, and work as a single parent, or as a 2-parent household; are a recent high school graduate, a grandparent, the first in your family to graduate college, attempting yet again to obtain your degree, or working towards another degree.

Diversity can sometimes hinder growth. Yet, with SNHU's unwavering support for their students, this diversity has provided magnificent experiences and fortified bonds. Our diverse backgrounds united us under one commonality; we stressed, struggled, and fought for this together. This experience has shaped us into the resilient individuals we are today while imparting its wisdom.

What have I learned? My mother was right; education is important. Delaying graduating college may not have been the ideal order nor made life easier, however, I wouldn't change these experiences as I may not be standing here today with all of you. I have a profound appreciation for my degree that exists only because of the prior struggles, the friendships created, and my journey here at SNHU. It was Confucius that said, "it does not matter how slowly you go so long as you do not stop."

STUDENT SPEAKER

SIERRA INGRAM

Master of Science in Accounting

Good Afternoon President LeBlanc, Board of Trustees, Scholars, Faculty, Family, and Friends; It is a pleasure to be standing here in front of you all on this glorious day.

Southern New Hampshire has enabled me to grow as a student, professional, active duty service member, parent, wife, business owner, and peer. My time at this institution has opened my eyes to how relatable we all are as students of life.

We, scholars from all walks of life, have one major characteristic in common. That characteristic is determination. Throughout our educational journeys I am sure we have all had our share of obstacles, adversities, and issues. However, persistence is omnipotent. Not giving up is why we, as graduating students are filled with such excitement; and our family and friends are proud of this great accomplishment.

We did not give up if we failed a test; We did not give up if we came across financial issues; We did not give up if we lost loved ones; We did not give up if we were deployed for our nation; and We did not give up if we were tired. If you look to your left, your right, in front of you, and behind you; You will only see a mere reflection of yourself in your peers.

It is important that we leave this arena with the same persistence we exercised during our coursework. Meaning, no matter what we do, where we are, or how hard things get; we must stay persistent, hungry, and humble throughout life. So never be ashamed to fail, learn from your journey, and never give up!

I will close with a quote from Dr. Denis Waitley, a former naval aviator and renowned author. "Success is almost totally dependent upon drive and persistence. The extra energy required to make another effort or try another approach is the secret to winning".

Congratulations on your success, Class of 2018.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The School of Business at Southern New Hampshire University prepares students for successful careers through a commitment to exceptional teaching of business fundamentals, a relentless focus on the competencies and workplace skills that distinguish high performers in business, and partnerships with businesses and organizations that provide our students with workplace experience and an understanding of today's business environments. The basic knowledge in accounting, economics, finance, marketing, management, leadership, and operations that every business student must attain is no longer sufficient to succeed.

Students today need to be adaptable to succeed in a workplace where jobs that have never existed before are being created daily as new technologies provide opportunities and challenges. They need to understand the implications of a global marketplace that is fully connected and interdependent. And they need to approach every job as an entrepreneur, finding new and better ways of doing things. We pride ourselves on our exceptional faculty that provides a broad, relevant business education designed to launch our students on successful careers and lives.

COLLEGE OF ONLINE AND CONTINUING EDUCATION BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING, TECHNOLOGY, AND AERONAUTICS

The College of Engineering, Technology, and Aeronautics (CETA) is one of Southern New Hampshire University's newest initiatives, underlining our continuing commitment to providing high-quality STEM programs. Our priority at SNHU is to provide students with the best possible learning environment. Top-notch faculty, advanced learning tools, and modern, cutting-edge facilities. The diverse faculty members within CETA bring with them a wealth of experience, including time spent designing videogames, serving in the armed forces, working as scientists and engineers. These faculty members help guide students through rigorous, hands-on curriculum as they spend time in the machine shop, robotics lab, aeronautics lab, electrical lab, wind tunnel, and other state-of-the-art tools available on campus. To us, success means students achieving their education and career goals—and we pride ourselves on providing them with the resources they need to do so.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Founded in 2004, the School of Education provides undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral programs to more than 700 students each year. The School of Education is committed to creating a better tomorrow by preparing students to be knowledgeable, reflective leaders, responsive to the needs of a diverse society.

The School of Education is strongly focused on teaching. Our faculty takes great pride in working closely with our students in a rigorous, practitioner-based program that leads to teacher certification. We have built strong partnerships with schools throughout the region that are committed to providing extensive clinical experiences in classrooms for our students as early as freshman year. Our recently redesigned undergraduate teacher education program will allow our teacher education candidates to spend their entire senior year in a school placement.
