A TRADITION STEEPED IN HISTORY

COMMENCEMENT PROCESSION

A procession of the various participants begins and ends our formal commencement ceremony. Individuals are arranged to reflect the order of academic rank in the hierarchy of the traditional European university.

At SNHU, the Mace Bearer leads the procession. He or she is followed by the Faculty Marshals, the Platform Party, and then the Faculty of the schools arranged in order of seniority, beginning with the senior faculty. The procession is concluded by the degree candidates. They enter in groups representing their schools/units, led by a gonfalon (flag) and walking in rank.

CEREMONIAL MACE

The mace was first used as a weapon. The word comes from the Latin 'mateola,' meaning mallet or staff. It consisted of a long club with a ball of steel or brass at one end. As newer weapons came into use, the mace lost its prime purpose as an instrument of war; however, it had become a symbol of authority and power. Universities in Europe with roots in the Middle Ages adopted maces as symbols of authority and unity. Since then, other institutions of higher learning have come to use the mace in their ceremonies.

Southern New Hampshire University commissioned David Elwell, a New Hampshire silversmith, to create a mace to commemorate the university's 50th anniversary commencement. This mace is made of brass, aluminum, copper, and bronze, with a staff of ebony and African padauk.

THE PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The Presidential Medallion, worn by the president with academic regalia, is a symbolic representation of the authority and responsibility vested by the university in the president. It is a symbol of office that dates from medieval times and is worn by the president at all ceremonial occasions.

The Presidential Medallion is a permanent possession of the university and is presented to successive presidents at their inaugurations by the chairman of the Board of Trustees. The chain and medallion are fabricated from sterling silver. The university emblem, in relief, is the central design on the medallion. It is surrounded by a border of entwined wires, similar in texture to the chain links, and finished with a square raised edge. The heavy, twisted links of the chain bear four oval plates on each side. The background of the entire piece is oxidized to highlight the relief design and textures. The names of those who have held the office are engraved on the reverse side of the medallion.

The Presidential Medallion was designed and fabricated in 1987 by award-winning New Hampshire metalsmith Jacquelyn Ferrency of Milford.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The academic costume worn today originated in the universities of the Middle Ages, when a warm gown and hood were useful for scholars and clerics in unheated buildings. The distinctive gowns served to set students apart from their fellow citizens, hence the perennial controversy between ‘town and gown.’

Until after the Civil War, students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1894. At that time it was decided that all robes would be black; bachelor’s gowns would have long, pointed sleeves; master’s gowns would have long, closed sleeves with slits for the arms at the elbows; and doctor’s gowns would have very full, bell-shaped sleeves, each with three velvet bands matching the velvet facing of the gown opening.

The length of hoods varies with the degree. The lining of the hood indicates the university by the colors. The border of the hood indicates the academic discipline in which the degree was earned.

Students who have studied abroad for one or more semesters will be wearing a sash with the colors of the flag of the country where they studied. The sashes are issued to signify the university’s commitment to provide students with opportunities for acquiring international and cross-cultural experience.

The colors for academic fields established by the American Council on Education include:

Agriculture	maize
Arts, Letters and Humanities	white
Business, Commerce and Accounting	light brown
Dentistry	lilac
Economics	copper
Education	light blue
Engineering	orange
Fine Arts	brown
Forestry	russet
Journalism	crimson
Law	purple
Library Science	lemon
Medicine	green
Music	pink
Nursing	apricot
Oratory	silver gray
Pharmacy	olive green
Philosophy	dark blue
Physical Education	sage green
Public Administration	peacock blue
Science	golden yellow
Social Work	citron
Theology	scarlet
Veterinary Science	gray

(Caps and gowns representing degrees from foreign universities may be quite different from those described. The most obvious difference may be in the cap, which is often a soft, round hat of the style worn by medieval scholars.)

STUDENT SPEAKER

DAMAYANTI SUBEDI

Bachelor of Science in Computer Information Technology

Good Morning, Guten Tag, Namaste,

Good morning, President LeBlanc, President Lynott, Distinguished Deans, Board of Trustees, Staff, Faculty, Friends, Family and my fellow graduates.

It is the greatest honor of my life, to be in front of you all celebrating our hard work and success today! This is a dream come true for me. I'd have never even imagined that I would have the opportunity to speak from this stage.

This is an accomplishment that I can't express in words how much it means to me. When I was 9 years old, my family was evicted out of the country by the government of Bhutan on racial, linguistic, religious and political grounds, and ended up in a refugee camp in Nepal. After 12 years in the refugee camp, I moved to Germany in search of a better life, leaving my family behind. Due to the financial conditions of my family back home in the refugee camp, I was bound to put my education on hold and work to provide financial support to my loved ones. After living in the camp for 18 years, my family resettled in the United States, and I was finally able to give continuity to my education, my eternal dream.

I applied to and was accepted at SNHU. With selfless support from my advisor and many others; I was able to complete my four-year degree in two years, while maintaining a 3.7 GPA.

Besides the academic opportunities, I got to engage in various leadership trainings and programs at SNHU, that have helped me build my leadership and communication skills. I have gained confidence, and I now have both the skills and desire to lead. I am grateful to the university for this!

To my fellow graduates, thank you for accepting me as your colleague in practical manners, and never making me feel like a non-traditional aged student. You included me, accepted me, and motivated me. We worked together and WE NEVER GAVE UP! I am thankful and will always cherish the times we spent together in various community services and leading other students.

In retrospection the journey I made, made me a stronger person and a degree from SNHU has now equipped me for my life. I consider this a result of my valuing education even when the opportunities were remote, and my faith in hard work. I would like to express my gratitude to my husband who encouraged me and held my hands throughout these times. Heartfelt thanks to my mother and all my family members: I could not have even started without your support! SNHU staff and faculty, you shaped my future!

And lastly to my fellow graduates again, you all have inspired me, and our community.

We did it! And we did it well! Congratulations class of 2019!

Bachelor of Arts in Communication

President LeBlanc, President Fowler, Distinguished Deans, Board of Trustees, Staff, Faculty, Friends, Family and my fellow graduates.

Today we celebrate the end of a journey. A personal voyage as unique as the person sitting next to you. Dedicating years, maybe decades, pursuing your objective. We've sacrificed movies with friends or family, canceled dinners, family game nights, and sleep, to devoting time to achieve the quintessential point of success. You embody tenacity, discipline and achievement!

Earning the "college graduate" designation carries a different meaning to different people. Much like the singular path that brought you to this moment, your reason is just as distinctive. Perhaps your reason was to get paid more, pursue further education, set a good example for your children and family, or fulfill a promise you made to your loved ones. Whatever your reason was, today, you can hold your head high and confidently say, "I am a college graduate."

Take this moment to bask in your accomplishment. Celebrate with friends and family. Enjoy some well-earned free time. Take a deep breath and savor the sweet nectar of your triumph. Find your passion. Be relentless in your pursuit. Your education is a tool. Sharpen your tool daily and blaze a trail for others to follow. Shatter perceptions, glass ceilings and barriers of old. Let nothing and no one keep you from achieving your dreams!

Our knowledge, experience, empathy, and diversity are needed more than ever. The world is in a constant, seemingly chaotic, change. Problems either grow or spontaneously sprout new ones. Turn on the news, and it doesn't matter which network, and we're besieged by serious issues: pollution, poverty, war, immigration, racism, sexism. We all know the list is much longer.

Nelson Mandela said, "Education is the most powerful weapon you can use to change the world." Through your grit, you've acquired the most powerful force for change. Make no mistake, change cannot happen without your leadership. Your amazing milestone opens doors for you to be the rising tide of positive change the world desperately needs. We need you to roll up your sleeves and get to work.

Pablo Picasso said, "The meaning of life is to find your gift. The purpose of life is to give it away." Be altruistic. Think not solely about personal gain, but how your strengths can help others. Identify issues where you can make a difference and help the people being marginalized. Though we live in challenging times, these problems are not impossible to solve. Each graduate's intelligence and fortitude are the rays of hope that each day we are working towards a better and brighter future.

Congratulations on this life changing achievement!

*United States Senator,
Honorary Doctorate of Public Service*

Senator Cory Booker, a U.S. Senator from New Jersey and Democratic candidate for president. Booker is running for president to reignite our spirit of common purpose to build a more fair and just nation for everyone. In 1996, Cory moved to Newark, New Jersey, and founded a nonprofit organization to provide legal services for low-income families, helping tenants take on slumlords, improve their living conditions, and stay in their homes. At age twenty-nine, Cory was elected to the Newark City Council, and beginning in 2006, he served as Newark's mayor for more than seven years. Cory is the first African-American elected to the US Senate from New Jersey. In the Senate, Cory has championed policies that advance economic and equal justice -- including leading efforts to reform the broken criminal justice system, increase wages and ensure hard work is fairly rewarded, and protect the rights of all Americans to breathe clean air and drink clean water.

JACINTA CASMIR-ANYANWU, RN, BSN, MPHMaster of Public Health*

Good Afternoon, President LeBlanc, President Fowler, Distinguished Deans, Board of Trustees, Staff, Faculty, Friends, Family and my fellow graduates.

Thank you, esteemed members of the faculty, proud parents, devoted friends, and squirming siblings.

Congratulations! Especially to the magnificent Southern New Hampshire University graduating class of 2019!

It is a privilege to be standing in your presence this afternoon, to be honest with you, this feels unreal and I hope I don't fall off this stage. In fact, my presence here today shows the power of education.

Being born in extreme poverty, I have seen some of the most challenging situations in life, from hunger to lack of school fees to homelessness. Even as a child, I've always known that education was the only way I could change my life. With God's blessings, determination and kindness from others, I finished Nursing school.

Today, I'm honored to be standing here with a master's degree in Public Health from Southern New Hampshire University. A school with a difference meant for working adults. As a busy mom with three children all under the ages of seven, and a full-time job, it was hard. Some days, I felt like I was losing my mind. One of those days was the day my 2-year-old deleted everything I wrote in a biostatistics paper that I was struggling to finish, I cried like a baby. I know most of you had challenges through the way, but here you are today in your graduation gowns. Today is a day of celebration. A day to celebrate all the hard work that got you here.

Earning my master's degree has made me more confident, brought new career opportunities, personal growth, and above all, a role model to my children and the young ones looking up to me. I now have a desire for lifelong learning as I'm planning to return to school for my doctorate degree.

To my fellow graduates, this is the beginning of good things. The excitement and expectations are high now, that might go away as you learn more about your new circumstances. Remember, every moment is an opportunity to learn from people around you. Do not get discouraged when the job you are hoping for does not come immediately. Be ready always because your workloads and responsibilities will increase with time. The purpose is to grow as a human being and discover what you're good at. Learn to hear feedback and never let it fester. Make corrections and move on. Being focused on success is good, but what is most important is treating people with dignity and making positive impacts on their lives. Don't forget to balance family and work but remember your family comes first. Now let's go out there being principled, proactive, productive and ready to serve our diverse communities and ever-changing world in truth and integrity. Thank you!

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

THE HONORABLE RANDALL WOODFIN

*Mayor of Birmingham, Alabama
Honorary Doctorate of Public Service*

Randall L. Woodfin was sworn in as the 30th mayor of Birmingham, Alabama on Nov. 28, 2017. A native of Birmingham and graduate of Cumberland School of Law, Mayor Woodfin is an attorney and former president of the Birmingham Board of Education. Throughout his career, he has worked in various positions for the City of Birmingham, which is why he's committed to bringing a new vision, a new dedication and a new energy to a city where he wants citizens to have every opportunity to work, play and grow to their fullest potential.

His dedication to his hometown and to others developed when he was 15 while working as a bagger at a supermarket in Birmingham. It was at the supermarket where Mayor Woodfin learned the importance of "Putting People First," a concept he carried on to Morehouse College, then to law school and finally into his public service career. Today, that slogan is at the core of his administration.

But those words are more than a slogan. They are a strategy.

In order to make Birmingham a symbol for progress, Mayor Woodfin is working to bring improvements to economic development; strength education and career opportunities for students; empower women and minority small-business owners; bolster neighborhood revitalization in the city's 99 neighborhoods; and lower crime.

Birmingham has always been a city for builders, from steel mills to startups. Mayor Woodfin's goal is to uphold the Magic City's legacy, making Birmingham a magnet for the next generation of purpose-driven builders who embrace innovation.

STUDENT SPEAKER

ROBERT LEE TESTERMAN JR.

Bachelor of Science in Data Analytics

Good Afternoon.

I would first like to thank President LeBlanc, distinguished guests, the Board of Trustees, and faculty and staff for not only being here, but also helping us all along the way. I would also like to extend my thanks to the friends and families of all the graduates – without you, this journey would have been a lot more difficult.

Graduates – remember everything that you have done, everything you pushed through, and sacrificed to make it here today. Think of the late nights, the countless cups of coffee, and especially the “oh my gosh, what did I get myself into” moments. This is for you. To celebrate your: grit, perseverance, and dedication. My parents told me a lot of things growing up, usually to stop deconstructing the computer, but there are two things that really stick out.

One day, I was trying to figure out what I wanted to do for a career. At the time, I was debating if I should enlist in the Air Force or not, I was stuck in-between. I could follow my family’s footsteps by serving, or start my own path. This was my first big decision as an adult. When I asked my parents, my mother laughed, called me a fly boy, and said either way I would make the correct decision – that I need to trust myself, otherwise I will never go anywhere. My dad smirked, said he would be proud either way and shared what his dad said to him: “That every generation should build upon the last.” It took me nearly 11 years, including a six-year enlistment to really grasp what all of their advice meant.

Among this class, I see people with different experiences, different backgrounds, and different reasons why we do the things we do. For our own reasons, we’ve pushed ourselves to where we are today, and even though we may have had our doubts, we believed in ourselves more. Some of us will continue in academia, others will start or continue careers in the workforce, but everyone will build upon the legacies laid before them.

Aristotle once said, “The roots of education are bitter, but the fruit is sweet.” Today is but a small taste of that fruit. Even though we graduate as students from SNHU today, please remember that life will continue to provide us with lessons each and every day. Keep an open mind: do not be afraid of the unexpected, but welcome it. Do not be afraid to fail, but instead learn from your mistakes. Do not be afraid of pursuing what you want... just be afraid of regret. Don’t stop believing in yourself.

Congratulations, Class of 2019.

THE LOEFFLER PRIZE

The Loeffler Prize is awarded to individuals who have extended themselves to help others in ways often extraordinary, but frequently unnoticed or unreported. This award recognizes those who have unselfishly and generously contributed their time and talents for the enrichment of others and the betterment of their community. They set an example for the spirit of generosity, everyday contributions, sometime heroism, and perseverance. The Loeffler Prize carries a $2,000 gift to be made in the winner's name to a non-profit of his or her choice.

The Loeffler Prize is named for Frederic "Rick" A. Loeffler, a member of the SNHU community, who embodies the spirit of this award. A long-time member of the SNHU Board of Trustees and a local business person, Rick is a champion of his community and the prize commemorates his commitment to make Manchester and New Hampshire a better place for all.

The 2019 Loeffler Prize recipient is:

- Diane Fitzpatrick, CEO, Boys & Girls Club of Manchester

BUSINESS

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The School of Business at Southern New Hampshire University prepares students for successful careers through a commitment to exceptional teaching of business fundamentals, a relentless focus on the competencies and workplace skills that distinguish high performers in business, and partnerships with businesses and organizations that provide our students with workplace experience and an understanding of today's business environments. The basic knowledge in accounting, economics, finance, marketing, management, leadership, and operations that every business student must attain is no longer sufficient to succeed.

Students today need to be adaptable to succeed in a workplace where jobs that have never existed before are being created daily as new technologies provide opportunities and challenges. They need to understand the implications of a global marketplace that is fully connected and interdependent. And they need to approach every job as an entrepreneur, finding new and better ways of doing things. We pride ourselves on our exceptional faculty that provides a broad, relevant business education designed to launch our students on successful careers and lives.

BUSINESS PROGRAMS

Southern New Hampshire University's Business Programs are driven to increase access to higher education, affordability, and outcomes attainment by building reusable, stackable learning experiences that allow learners to achieve their educational and professional goals. The mission is centered on a commitment to relevant education and employment competencies that foster learner success. Our focus is to develop professionals who achieve success personally, in their careers, and for society as whole. The many diverse business programs prepare students for both academic and professional advancement opportunities in their chosen fields and disciplines. Our programs employ rigorous learning outcomes, real world scenarios, and the latest technologies relevant to the field of professional practice. We pride ourselves on providing our students with a transformative educational experience and never giving up on any student who is putting forth the effort to achieve his or her academic goals.

COLLEGE FOR AMERICA

COLLEGE FOR AMERICA PROGRAMS

The College for America programs at Southern New Hampshire University include competency-based Associates and Bachelor's degrees. Our partnership model allows us to offer programs that are extraordinarily low cost, built for working adults, and uniquely applicable in the workplace. We work around the globe to offer rigorous degrees that are earned by completing real-world projects and goals. They are self-scheduled and self-paced, so students can fit school in around jobs and family responsibilities.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING, TECHNOLOGY, AND AERONAUTICS

The College of Engineering, Technology, and Aeronautics (CETA) is one of Southern New Hampshire University's newest initiatives, underlining our continuing commitment to providing high-quality STEM programs. Our priority at SNHU is to provide students with the best possible learning environment. Top-notch faculty, advanced learning tools, and modern, cutting-edge facilities. The diverse faculty members within CETA bring with them a wealth of experience, including time spent designing videogames, serving in the armed forces, working as scientists and engineers. These faculty members help guide students through rigorous, hands-on curriculum as they spend time in the machine shop, robotics lab, aeronautics lab, electrical lab, wind tunnel, and other state-of-the-art tools available on campus. To us, success means students achieving their education and career goals—and we pride ourselves on providing them with the resources they need to do so.

COUNSELING

COUNSELING PROGRAMS

The mission of the masters in Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program is to empower new generations of counselors by transforming the lives of our students, and through them, the lives of the clients and communities they will serve. To achieve this, we deliver innovative, experiential counselor education, create an inclusive environment, and nurture authentic relationships. We recognize that earning a degree in counseling is more than just acquiring a base of knowledge and theories; it is about developing an identity as a healer. The journey from novice to expert counselor takes many years. The completion of a master's degree is just one step in that journey; yet today, the faculty and staff of the Counseling program at SNHU are proud to present these students who have, by their hard work and perseverance, demonstrated they are ready to take the next step in their journeys, well prepared to have a positive impact on the lives of others, and are grounded in ethical practice that promotes unconditional positive regard and cultural humility towards themselves and their clients.

EDUCATION

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Founded in 2004, the School of Education, provides undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral programs to more than 700 students each year. The School of Education is committed to creating a better tomorrow by preparing students to be knowledgeable, reflective leaders, responsive to the needs of a diverse society.

The School of Education is strongly focused on teaching. Our faculty takes great pride in working closely with our students in a rigorous, practitioner-based program that leads to teacher certification. We have built strong partnerships with schools throughout the region that are committed to providing extensive clinical experiences in classrooms for our students as early as freshman year. Our recently redesigned undergraduate teacher education program will allow our teacher education candidates to spend their entire senior year in a school placement.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Southern New Hampshire University's Education department provides high quality graduate programs geared to the development of cognizant and influential educational leaders, able to address the needs of the 21st-century student within the K-12 and higher education administration realms. As educational leaders, learners in these programs build upon their existing knowledge, skills, abilities, and disposition to further enhance their capacity to address the academic and social-emotional needs of their students through the creation and implementation of positive change in curriculum, instruction, and programs. The Education Department prides itself on developing graduates who can excel professionally and address the diversified and ever-increasing globalized learning community needs.
