The ASC program provides new students with a full year of personalized academic support tailored to fit their academic needs.

Students receive coaching on a regular basis in their first year to ensure that they are meeting the demands of their courses, effectively managing their time, and successfully transitioning to life at SNHU.

What should you know about the program?

YOU’LL HAVE AN ACADEMIC SUCCESS COACH
Your coach will be your greatest resource, your biggest ally, and your number one supporter. They will provide academic support while helping you develop independent and self-directed learning habits.

THERE WILL BE REGULAR CHECK-INS
At least five times during the fall semester, you’ll meet with your coach to discuss your classes, your concerns, your struggles, and your goals.

WE’LL WORK WITH YOUR PROFESSORS
The number one goal of every SNHU faculty member is to help you succeed. We’ll work with them to gather feedback to help you take your education further.

YOUR ADVISORS ARE ON BOARD
We’ll host a few group advising sessions to help review your academic plan and answer any registration questions you may have.

YOU’LL ATTEND WORKSHOPS
The ASC team will host a number of workshops designed to promote academic success and help connect you with campus resources. These can help with time management, goal setting, organizational skills, lecture comprehension, and more.
