

COMPLETER DATA

Of the 11 graduates who completed the Elementary Education certification and are employed in the field in the 2018-2019 academic year, 10 responded to the alumni survey indicating that they felt at least adequately prepared, or approximately 91%. This is based on the following criteria: alumni who are working in a position that requires an elementary certification, graduated within the last five years, and have between 1 and 3 years of experience.
