

FALL COMMENCEMENT 2022

CEREMONIES AT SNHU ARENA, NOVEMBER 19, 2022

VIRTUAL CEREMONIES, DECEMBER 10, 2022

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Paul LeBlanc
*University President and CEO
Southern New Hampshire University*

Dear graduates, family and friends,

I can't think of a better way to wrap up Southern New Hampshire University's 90th year celebration than with Fall Commencement. From the first ceremony held as the New Hampshire Accounting and Secretarial School in a small room above a store in downtown Manchester, to celebrating almost 33,000 graduates globally in 2022, our commitment to transforming lives through education remains the same.

Today we are proud to recognize our graduates. Whether you are gathered at the SNHU Arena in New Hampshire, celebrating at home with family and friends, or if obligations prevent you from marking the occasion, I hope you are as proud of yourself as we are of you. It took tremendous dedication and perseverance to earn your college degree. Congratulations!

To the families and friends celebrating graduates; thank you. Your encouragement, and in many cases the sacrifices you made, helped them be able to put in the work necessary to finish their degree. Your support made this achievement possible and your graduate is fortunate to have you in their lives.

Enjoy the celebration, and congratulations to the Class of 2022!

A TRADITION STEEPED IN HISTORY

COMMENCEMENT PROCESSION

A procession of the various participants begins and ends our formal commencement ceremony. Individuals are arranged to reflect the order of academic rank in the hierarchy of the traditional European university.

At SNHU, the Mace Bearer leads the procession. He or she is followed by the Faculty Marshals, the Platform Party, and then the Faculty of the schools arranged in order of seniority, beginning with the senior faculty. The procession is concluded by the degree candidates. They enter in groups representing their schools/units, led by a gonfalon (flag) and walking in rank.

CEREMONIAL MACE

The mace was first used as a weapon. The word comes from the Latin ‘mateola,’ meaning mallet or staff. It consisted of a long club with a ball of steel or brass at one end. As newer weapons came into use, the mace lost its prime purpose as an instrument of war; however, it had become a symbol of authority and power. Universities in Europe with roots in the Middle Ages adopted maces as symbols of authority and unity. Since then, other institutions of higher learning have come to use the mace in their ceremonies.

Southern New Hampshire University commissioned David Elwell, a New Hampshire silversmith, to create a mace to commemorate the university's 50th anniversary commencement. This mace is made of brass, aluminum, copper, and bronze, with a staff of ebony and African padauk.

THE PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The Presidential Medallion, worn by the president with academic regalia, is a symbolic representation of the authority and responsibility vested by the university in the president. It is a symbol of office that dates from medieval times and is worn by the president at all ceremonial occasions.

The Presidential Medallion is a permanent possession of the university and is presented to successive presidents at their inaugurations by the chairman of the Board of Trustees. The chain and medallion are fabricated from sterling silver. The university emblem, in relief, is the central design on the medallion. It is surrounded by a border of entwined wires, similar in texture to the chain links, and finished with a square raised edge. The heavy, twisted links of the chain bear four oval plates on each side. The background of the entire piece is oxidized to highlight the relief design and textures. The names of those who have held the office are engraved on the reverse side of the medallion.

The Presidential Medallion was designed and fabricated in 1987 by award-winning New Hampshire metalsmith Jacquelyn Ferrency of Milford.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The academic costume worn today originated in the universities of the Middle Ages, when a warm gown and hood were useful for scholars and clerics in unheated buildings. The distinctive gowns served to set students apart from their fellow citizens, hence the perennial controversy between ‘town and gown.’

Until after the Civil War, students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1894. At that time it was decided that all robes would be black; bachelor’s gowns would have long, pointed sleeves; master’s gowns would have long, closed sleeves with slits for the arms at the elbows; and doctor’s gowns would have very full, bell-shaped sleeves, each with three velvet bands matching the velvet facing of the gown opening.

The length of hoods varies with the degree. The lining of the hood indicates the university by the colors. The border of the hood indicates the academic discipline in which the degree was earned.

Students who have studied abroad for one or more semesters will be wearing a sash with the colors of the flag of the country where they studied. The sashes are issued to signify the university’s commitment to provide students with opportunities for acquiring international and cross-cultural experience.

Undergraduate learners that have received ceremonial and/or Latin honors will be wearing a gold cord.

Graduates that are serving in the military or are veterans will be wearing red, white and blue woven cords in recognition and appreciation of their service.

Participants in campus Undergraduate Research Day will be wearing a light blue cord.

Graduates that have provided academic support as peer educators will be wearing a royal blue cord.

Many cords are representative of membership in a recognized National Honor Society; a full list is found on subsequent pages.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The colors for academic fields established by the American Council on Education include:

|                                   |              |
|-----------------------------------|--------------|
| Agriculture                       | maize        |

| Journalism                        | crimson      |
| Law                               | purple       |
| Library Science                   | lemon        |
| Medicine                          | green        |
| Music                             | pink         |
| Nursing                           | apricot      |
| Oratory                           | silver gray  |
| Pharmacy                          | olive green  |
| Philosophy                        | dark blue    |
| Physical Education                | sage green   |
| Public Administration             | peacock blue |
| Science golden                    | yellow       |
| Social Work                       | citron       |
| Theology                          | scarlet      |
| Veterinary Science                | gray         |

(Caps and gowns representing degrees from foreign universities may be quite different from those described. The most obvious difference may be in the cap, which is often a soft, round hat of the style worn by medieval scholars.)

Greetings, President LeBlanc, Board of Trustees, Distinguished Deans, Staff, Faculty, Family, Friends, and Fellow Graduates. I am genuinely grateful to God for the opportunity to be here today.

Lao Tzu, a Chinese philosopher, said, “The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step,” and we took that step. We fought self-doubt, disappointments, and varying trials, and despite all obstacles, we persevered. We persevered as immigrants from humble beginnings, as single mothers and fathers, as first-generation graduates, and as stay-at-home parents, juggling careers and studies. We have had to carve out a path for ourselves, keeping our heads high and our eyes looking ahead as we seize the opportunities awaiting us.

I wanted to continue my education, but what was I to do as a stay-at-home mom with almost half a dozen children? While registering for in-person classes at a community college, I met a young lady who mentioned the flexibility of the online classes at SNHU; I had never heard about Southern New Hampshire University before!

I quickly realized that taking online classes would be the best fit for my family and me, so I immediately completed an online application, then I went downstairs to my car and contacted SNHU; it was an effortless transition. The rest is history.

My journey at SNHU started with a bachelor’s degree in business administration. Obtaining my degree was not a straight path void of obstacles. My laptop sat next to me as I lay in the ICU after the birth of my daughter.

I was determined not to delay the completion of my degree. COVID came, and I wondered if graduating would even be a possibility. But SNHU made it possible. I graduated with a 4.0 GPA and had a “then what?” moment. You see, I had been at home caring for my family while working extremely hard studying, but the corporate world was asking me for work experience. I had lots of experience, but none in a workplace setting. Before obtaining my degree, I could not afford to work outside the home with so many children. So, I returned to SNHU to get more tools for the journey and completed an accounting degree with another 4.0 GPA to open more opportunities for me.

At SNHU, I gained skills that helped my journey of self-improvement, employment, and earning potential. These years, the help and encouragement I received from staff, family, and friends will stay with me forever. Today is a celebration for me and everyone who worked to make it to this day.

Fellow graduates, even if it seems hard or scary, do not ever accept less than you are worth. When you go to your workplaces or volunteer in your communities, be the first to arrive and the last to leave. Be irreplaceable by your excellent work ethic. And most of all, stay focused as we continue this journey of a thousand miles! Congratulations, Class of 2022!

Good afternoon!!! Thank you, President LeBlanc. Welcome, Board of Trustees, distinguished deans, staff, graduates, family, and friends!

My journey to get here has not been easy nor has it been traditional, it has taken me 30+ years to get on this stage. I have encountered immense adversity at every turn, and I have even been homeless. I never walked the stage to receive my high school diploma and I parented two amazing humans by myself. I have been broke and broken down too many times to remember but somehow, somewhere in that chaos I found what it means to look at the world around me through a different lens, I learned the value and benefit of a growth mindset.

Are you a positive or negative thinker? Do you fail at everything, or do you flourish in the face of a challenge? Do you have a fixed or growth mindset? The growth mindset is a state of mind that considers failure and struggle a part of our growth process. Without growth, we are stagnant, we are deeply grounded in semi-set concrete trudging through our existence.

Growth mindset is asking yourself, "Do you know what the POWER OF YET means?" Dr. Carol Dweck states that there is amazing power in the word YET. YET means all things are possible when we are ready. For example: I will never understand statistics... YET or understand Sigmund Freud's psychosexual development...YET! Yet is growth mindset at its best, a realistic, positive way of looking at the world around us. All that you want for your future has YET to come!

One common thread we see here today is since we have started SNHU we have grown. During our course work we learned about our purpose in the world. We have learned the true meanings of vulnerability, grit, and resilience. These skills will help us become influential leaders and remarkable agents of social change; we have developed a growth mindset. Everything we have learned during our time at SNHU will help us become superior champions of social justice, a force for social good where diversity, equity, and inclusivity allows us to be authentic, where we can be courageous, self-aware and have those uncomfortable conversations with confidence.

As we part here today, I would like to take a moment to thank my wife and children for their unwavering support throughout my journey, I could never have done this without you. To everyone graduating today, each one of you is unique, capable, and daring in your own way. We challenge the status quo and embrace diversity at every turn with grace and determination. We are resilient!!! We are SNHU!!! Congratulations class of 2022!!!

Master of Arts

Greetings President LeBlanc, Board of Trustees, distinguished faculty, cherished staff, the countless friends, family, and support networks that lifted, made way for, and breathed into this, the class of 2022.

Two-and-a-half years ago, at what seemed to be a successful time in my life; where family, home, and career were in alignment, I began to give myself permission to consider what was still possible for me. I decided to pursue my graduate degree with my head held high, confident, and ready to learn about something that at the time was only a topic of interest. Not long after I had begun, the world was upended. What was to be a time of extracurricular enrichment became remote work, daycare closures, mask mandates, health challenges, lay-offs, and mergers all wrapped in a global pandemic. My life, once wide and open, certain, and optimistic was now sheltered into a 42-inch corner of my bedroom with a tiny lamp, a questionable laptop, a pile of books, and remnants of snacks from the day's toddler zoom sessions.

Unbeknownst to me, was that possible, at its very best, glows in the dark. When things are most unclear, far from perfect, and cluttered by your surroundings – possible takes hold, grows roots, and when clung to in the dark of night, will glow for you and lead you through. Possible is where those small ideas fostered big dreams. Dreams, born in the late nights after impossibly long days, the ones where your entire household sleeps while you aim for 11:59pm by putting pen to paper, trying to shape a future for yourself and for them.

With SNHU I learned what was possible – within me and for me. With each new task, each paper written, that which was merely possible somehow became belief and that belief became action. Holding on to possible at every turn of ten weeks allowed me to look back at how far I had come, how strong I was becoming. The questioning in the dark gave way to bold days where I took action to change my future, to find a new career that honored who I was and who I was becoming.

As I registered for my final capstone, I began a new job, using everything I had learned in my program in perfect synergy with the career I gave 26 years to. My now five-and-a-half-year-old daughter has that tiny desk in her room, imbued with all of possible's glittering hope.

To my fellow graduates, hold tight to the possible. At all times, remember why you started as your inspiration for the many hills you've yet to climb. This achievement is your testament to what is possible within us all. Glowing brightly, unceasingly, in the dark. Congratulations to you, the class of 2022.

GUSTAVO PEREZ

Master of Business Administration

Greetings President LeBlanc, Board of Trustees, distinguished faculty, staff, family, friends, and my fellow graduates.

There are so many emotions running through me now, I am overjoyed, energized but in some way relieved and still somewhat nervous. I still feel like I have an assignment due on Sunday. Some of these emotions that I am going through now were transformed over the course of my journey with SNHU. You see, I used to be really scared, I was doubtful of myself, and I was very nervous. I remember the beginning like it was yesterday when I was not sure if I'd even be accepted. You see, I struggled to excel in my undergraduate studies, where I was faced with so many challenges back then that kept me from reaching my full potential. In fact, I was rejected by 3 schools before finding my way to Southern New Hampshire University, and even though I was admitted on a provisional basis, I knew that all I needed was a chance. That is what this experience has been for me, a chance, hope for a better future for my family and myself.

My higher education journey began over 20 years ago, I was the first in my family to leave for college and though it took me longer than I had planned, I was the first to receive my bachelors. And sure, I dreamed of one day getting an MBA but over the years that dream seemed further and further away. Then came the pandemic, and through the loss that I am sure many of us felt, I took the time to reassess my life and my goals. And with the blessing and support of my loving wife, I took the first step that led me here today in front of all of you. I also started with the dawn of fatherhood upon me, and I am now completing this journey, as a father of 3, so I want to again mention the support of my loving wife.

Thomas Edison once said, "Our greatest weakness lies in giving up. The most certain way to succeed is always to try just one more time." We all get to celebrate our accomplishment today because we chose to not give up. My advice for my fellow graduates, is to not be worried about being scared, even a little doubt is okay, and that being nervous is just fine, let all that energy be the fuel that drives you to accomplish the next great chapter of your life. Congratulations class of 2022!

HONOR SOCIETIES

ALPHA CHI NATIONAL COLLEGE HONOR SOCIETY (EPSILON CHAPTER)

SNHU is home to the Epsilon Chapter of Alpha Chi, the National Honor Society for liberal arts majors, which recognizes outstanding scholastic achievement, service, and character. Membership is open to liberal arts majors who have completed at least one half of the work required for a baccalaureate degree, rank in the top 10% of the class, and have earned cumulative GPA of 3.85 or above. # COUNSELING PROGRAMS

COUNSELING PROGRAMS

The mission of the Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program is to empower new generations of counselors by transforming the lives of our students, and through them, the lives of the clients and communities they will serve. To achieve this, we deliver innovative, experiential counselor education, create an inclusive environment, and nurture authentic relationships. We recognize that earning a degree in counseling is more than just acquiring a base of knowledge and theories; it is about developing an identity as a healer. The journey from novice to expert counselor takes many years. The completion of a master's degree is just one step in that journey; yet today, the faculty and staff of the Counseling program at SNHU are proud to present these students who have, by their hard work and perseverance, demonstrated they are ready to take the next step in their journeys, well prepared to have a positive impact on the lives of others, and are grounded in ethical practice that promotes unconditional positive regard and cultural humility towards themselves and their clients.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Southern New Hampshire University's Education programs strive to develop students into active and influential leaders within K-12 education and higher education. These students have the knowledge, skills, abilities, and most importantly disposition to create beneficial change within the curriculum, instruction, and programs to meet the individual needs of learners. Through their studies and experiences at SNHU, they are prepared to excel professionally, ready to address the diversified and ever-increasing globalized learning community needs, and as professionals and future leaders in Education.

LIBERAL ARTS PROGRAMS

---

SNHU's Liberal Arts department embraces both passion and practicality within our many diverse undergraduate and graduate programs, such as Communication, Creative Writing, Digital Photography, English, General Studies, Graphic Design, History, and Liberal Arts. Our mission is to guide our students' exploration of the human experience to enrich their journeys as dynamic global citizens. In doing this, we foster the development of practical skills, leading to success in their chosen professional paths. We cultivate a passionate community that practices respect, collaboration, creativity, leadership, and communication. Regardless of discipline area, a Liberal Arts education challenges students to expand their minds while encouraging empathy and self-reflection. Liberal Arts promotes objective examination of new ideas and thoughts and helps incite creativity and the development of critical problem-solving skills. Liberal Arts students sharpen their communication skills for different audiences in a variety of contexts and formats. Students learn to question assumptions in the search for truth. Emboldened by their Liberal Arts education, our students have a meaningful impact on their local and global communities, as they imagine and bring about a better future.

NURSING PROGRAMS

NURSING PROGRAMS

SNHU's Nursing and Health Professions department provides high quality undergraduate and graduate education with distinction in scholarship, service, and practice for nurses and health professionals seeking to maximize their personal and professional potential. This mission is fulfilled through innovative programs and by meeting the needs of adult learners in an online environment. Graduates are prepared to promote a culture of health within a diverse society in order to meet the challenges of an ever-evolving healthcare system.

SOCIAL SCIENCE PROGRAMS

SNHU's Social Sciences department empowers and supports students to transform their lives and the lives of those around them through high-quality and innovative educational practices that enrich their knowledge and skills in the helping professions. Students apply their knowledge of human behavior through our programs in Anthropology, Criminal Justice, Human Services, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology. Our programs provide students with insights at the individual, societal, and global levels in order to create a richer understanding of multiple perspectives and cultures. Students also hone their skills in analysis, critical thinking, problem-solving, communication, ethical reasoning, and professionalism.

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING & MATHEMATICS (STEM) PROGRAMS

STEM PROGRAMS

The mission of SNHU's STEM Department is to serve as a global leader in STEM education by providing learner-centric and cutting-edge opportunities focused on equitable access for all using innovative technology and teaching practices. Our programs challenge students to think critically, to grow as professionals, and become lifelong learners who possess the interdisciplinary skills needed in a transformative society. The STEM Department offers robust and challenging programs that engage students' diverse learning styles using projects, technology, industry tools, experiential learning, and environments that both adhere to our rigorous learning outcomes and are authentic to the relevant field of professional practice. We take great pride in providing our students with a transformative educational experience and enriching the world through the advancement of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics one learner at a time.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR NEWEST GRADUATES!

Congratulations, graduate!

We're proud to welcome you to the SNHU Alumni Association, and honored to celebrate your accomplishments and the determination that got you here today. You're joining the ranks of more than 200,000 SNHU alumni worldwide, a diverse and accomplished network of professionals, community leaders and change makers.

Your alma mater is here for you after you graduate. We encourage your active participation in the SNHU community – with a multitude of ways to stay connected and get involved. You can give back by volunteering as a career coach, build your regional SNHU network, attend regional and virtual events, and so much more!

Visit alumni.snhu.edu to update your alumni profile, leverage career resources, learn about upcoming events, access other great benefits and find meaningful ways to continue your journey with SNHU.

Summa optimaque,
