A TRADITION STEEPED IN HISTORY

COMMENCEMENT PROCESSION

A procession of the various participants begins and ends our formal commencement ceremony. Individuals are arranged to reflect the order of academic rank in the hierarchy of the traditional European university.

At SNHU, the Mace Bearer leads the procession. He or she is followed by the Faculty Marshals, the Platform Party, and then the Faculty of the schools arranged in order of seniority, beginning with the senior faculty. The procession is concluded by the degree candidates. They enter in groups representing their schools/units, led by a gonfalon (flag) and walking in rank.

CEREMONIAL MACE

The mace was first used as a weapon. The word comes from the Latin 'mateola,' meaning mallet or staff. It consisted of a long club with a ball of steel or brass at one end. As newer weapons came into use, the mace lost its prime purpose as an instrument of war; however, it had become a symbol of authority and power. Universities in Europe with roots in the Middle Ages adopted maces as symbols of authority and unity. Since then, other institutions of higher learning have come to use the mace in their ceremonies.

Southern New Hampshire University commissioned David Elwell, a New Hampshire silversmith, to create a mace to commemorate the university's 50th anniversary commencement. This mace is made of brass, aluminum, copper, and bronze, with a staff of ebony and African padauk.

THE PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The Presidential Medallion, worn by the president with academic regalia, is a symbolic representation of the authority and responsibility vested by the university in the president. It is a symbol of office that dates from medieval times and is worn by the president at all ceremonial occasions.

The Presidential Medallion is a permanent possession of the university and is presented to successive presidents at their inaugurations by the chairman of the Board of Trustees. The chain and medallion are fabricated from sterling silver. The university emblem, in relief, is the central design on the medallion. It is surrounded by a border of entwined wires, similar in texture to the chain links, and finished with a square raised edge. The heavy, twisted links of the chain bear four oval plates on each side. The background of the entire piece is oxidized to highlight the relief design and textures. The names of those who have held the office are engraved on the reverse side of the medallion.

The Presidential Medallion was designed and fabricated in 1987 by award-winning New Hampshire metalsmith Jacquelyn Ferency of Milford.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The academic costume worn today originated in the universities of the Middle Ages, when a warm gown and hood were useful for scholars and clerics in unheated buildings. The distinctive gowns served to set students apart from their fellow citizens, hence the perennial controversy between ‘town and gown.’

Until after the Civil War, students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1894. At that time it was decided that all robes would be black; bachelor’s gowns would have long, pointed sleeves; master’s gowns would have long, closed sleeves with slits for the arms at the elbows; and doctor’s gowns would have very full, bell-shaped sleeves, each with three velvet bands matching the velvet facing of the gown opening.

The length of hoods varies with the degree. The lining of the hood indicates the university by the colors. The border of the hood indicates the academic discipline in which the degree was earned.

Students who have studied abroad for one or more semesters will be wearing a sash with the colors of the flag of the country where they studied. The sashes are issued to signify the university’s commitment to provide students with opportunities for acquiring international and cross-cultural experience.

The colors for academic fields established by the American Council on Education include:

Agriculture	maize
Arts, Letters and Humanities	white
Business, Commerce and Accounting	light brown
Dentistry	lilac
Economics	copper
Education	light blue
Engineering	orange
Fine Arts	brown
Forestry	russet
Journalism	crimson
Law	purple
Library Science	lemon
Medicine	green
Music	pink
Nursing	apricot
Oratory	silver gray
Pharmacy	olive green
Philosophy	dark blue
Physical Education	sage green
Public Administration	peacock blue
Science	golden yellow
Social Work	citron
Theology	scarlet
Veterinary Science	gray

(Caps and gowns representing degrees from foreign universities may be quite different from those described. The most obvious difference may be in the cap, which is often a soft, round hat of the style worn by medieval scholars.)

Centered at the intersection of art and activism, Imagine Justice is dedicated to leveraging the power of art to advocate for communities around the country, to fight for justice and equality and to stand united against injustice wherever it appears.

Common continues to break down barriers with a multitude of critically acclaimed, diverse roles, and continued success at the box office, while devoting his time to raising awareness and empowering communities.

STUDENT ADDRESS CLASS OF 2020

SAMANTHA AGUILAR HERNANDEZ

Bachelor of Arts, Summa Cum Laude

President LeBlanc, Dr. Lorenz, distinguished deans, board of trustees, staff, faculty, friends, my wonderful familia, and my fellow graduates:

Before I stepped up to this podium, I pinched myself to make sure I wasn't dreaming. And I am pretty sure I am going to do it again at the end of this speech. The truth is, I feel honored and extremely grateful to be able to stand before all of you today after the unprecedented mess that was 2020.

Our generation faced a lot of challenges during the past newly two years, with COVID-19 being the most predominant. We have been experiencing a new "normal". We have adjusted to a new world.

Despite all of these challenges, we became college graduates during this time. We demonstrated the strength, determination, and the power of our generation. We continued to move forward, powered by the hope of walking on this stage, and finally crossing the finish line after 4 long years of hard work. You have waited for this moment. You have earned this moment. Embrace it, enjoy it, and never forget it.

In 2020 alone, we went through major historical events. From a global pandemic to the Black Lives Matter Movement, to the very first non-English film winning Best Picture on the Academy Awards. These events have shaped the new world of today and will continue to do so for the years to come. However, I don't want us to forget about the past, but instead, to embrace it and to learn from it to make this world better for us and the next generation. Learn from the past, live in the present, and look forward to tomorrow.

The world of today is terrifying and trying to adjust to it will prove to be a bigger challenge. We live on a new world where the meaning of "normal" is constantly shaped by the news of today.

Every time we take a step outside, it seems like the world we once lived in during our time at SNHU has taken a wild turn, almost to the point where we don't longer recognize it. It is terrifying not knowing what will happen tomorrow. It is terrifying to feel like you are losing control of the world around you.

However, with fear comes new experiences and new ways of understanding the world. We face new challenges and discover a new side of ourselves. We take upon new responsibilities, and we learn new things about the world around us. When the world seems like is falling apart, that is when we take control and come up with a new plan for our future.

We are walking into a world that will need the strength of our generation more than ever. Our new world will need the courage of those in healthcare, the brilliant minds of those in the math & science, and the vision of those working on the ever changing field of Technology. It will need the creativity of our designers, the art of a filmmaker, the fairness of those in the Criminal Justice and those in Education will have the task to share the knowledge of our world with generations to come. Each one of us here will bring something to our world to build a better future.

Everything you do from this moment on will not only matter to you but to the new world we are living in. Learning from our past and embracing our mistakes, will help us prevent them in the future and hopefully shine a brighter light that will guide the next generation.

I know it sounds like we are carrying a heavy load on our backs, however, our generation has proven to be the best one in handling hard challenges. We struggled in every step of the way during the hell that was 2020. We struggled to say goodbye to our friends, to our professors, mentors, and family members when we parted ways. However, it was their words of encouragement, the memories of our moments together, and their hope for us to accomplish our goals, what kept us moving forward despite the challenges we faced.

I do not want us to go back to a world where the lives of some are threatened by those around us.

I do not want us to go back to a world where we are divided based on the ideas of our rulers. I do not want us to go back to a world where compassion is seen as a weakness and violence is a sign of power. I do not want us to go back into a world where we constantly live-in fear for what may come tomorrow.

As a single-mother, father, veteran, immigrant, or a first-generation graduate, you have what it takes to shape a better tomorrow. Be proud of who you are and who you will become. Be proud of who you were in the past, even if you feel like you could have done better. That person along with their slips in life, are the ones who got you here. Embrace them, accept them, and don't forget to be grateful towards them.

My time at SNHU helped me understand who I truly was and the path I was meant to take. It was thanks to the everlasting support of my family, friends, my mentor, my R.A. Staff at Monadnock, and my leaders, that I was able to figure out how I wanted my future to look like. They guided me through every step of the way and reminded me that we are not alone.

Fellow Graduates, whatever you decide to do from now on, make sure that the path you choose is your own and that it's formed with hopes for a better future. Be happy about your accomplishments. Be proud of the path you've taken and never forget your past for that's how you will pursue new dreams and rebuild your future.

Class of 2020, keep looking forward to tomorrow.

Congratulations!

KATHERINE MARCELLA PIGSLEY

Bachelor of Science, Magna Cum Laude

Good afternoon, President LeBlanc, Dr. Lorenz, Distinguished Deans, Board of Trustees, Staff, Faculty, Friends, Family, and my fellow graduates.

In a year full of losses, loss of life, loss of jobs, loss of hope, it hurt not to have the graduation we always imagined right away. But instead we now have the opportunity to savor this moment together since we are now able to safely celebrate in person the great achievement of graduating from college.

There are first-generation graduates among us, graduates who worked full-time while attending school, graduates who missed family events, graduates who needed another opportunity to finish their degree, graduates who all worked towards the shared pride of graduating from SNHU. We have all sacrificed and should be incredibly proud of ourselves for doing so when it seemed like the cards were stacked against us. From being sent home for an “extended spring break” our junior years to now a year and a half later gathering together here to celebrate, no one could have seen this coming, but it will never take the accomplishment away.

In my thank yous I mentioned my coaches, more specifically I want to mention Coach Munson who is not only the head field hockey coach at SNHU but someone who has had a huge impact on my development as a human being. As a person who wasn’t really sure if they wanted to go to college, Coach helped me see the benefits of getting a degree to advance myself professionally and personally.

She also introduced me to my second family, my teammates, who have been with me through the ups and downs of being an athlete, who have taught me about life in the balance, who molded me into me and who are still teaching me to this day. But Coach’s guidance hasn’t stopped. One thing that Coach taught us that has really stuck with me, that I am going to pass on to you, is recognizing savor moments. Savor moments are taking the time to actually enjoy being in a specific moment that you are in. Not being able to see friends or family anymore, not being able to go out to your favorite restaurant or see a movie and instead have to stay inside and watch as the chaos unfolded, made people realize how fragile life can really be. So whether it be meeting your friend for coffee, sitting down to do one of the hobbies you picked up in quarantine, going for a walk by yourself, watching your name go by on a screen in your childhood living room, or finally being here today with our fellow graduates, take a moment to appreciate those around you, savor this moment.

I am extremely grateful to be able to celebrate with you in person. Congratulations, Class of 2021.

ADVANTAGE PROGRAM

We are celebrating the last graduating class of Southern New Hampshire University's Advantage Program in 2021.

The Advantage Program was a face-to-face, intensive, highly supportive program held at our Salem, New Hampshire location since 2008.

The Advantage Program's half day courses format offered a flexible introduction to college for recent high school graduates and young adults. Students acquired diverse knowledge, skills, professional dispositions, and competencies to earn an Associate's degree in Business Administration or Liberal Arts.

The vast majority of graduates continue onto a bachelor's degree program, but some chose to enter their career field immediately.

This program has now become part of our campus-based degree offerings.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING, TECHNOLOGY, AND AERONAUTICS

The College of Engineering, Technology, and Aeronautics (CETA) is one of Southern New Hampshire University's newest initiatives, underlining our continuing commitment to providing high-quality STEM programs. Our priority at SNHU is to provide students with the best possible learning environment. Top-notch faculty, advanced learning tools, and modern, cutting-edge facilities. The diverse faculty members within CETA bring with them a wealth of experience, including time spent designing videogames, serving in the armed forces, working as scientists and engineers. These faculty members help guide students through rigorous, hands-on curriculum as they spend time in the machine shop, robotics lab, aeronautics lab, electrical lab, wind tunnel, and other state-of-the-art tools available on campus. To us, success means students achieving their education and career goals—and we pride ourselves on providing them with the resources they need to do so.

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

The mission of the School of Arts and Sciences is to educate students to live and work well and to be actively engaged in carrying out civic responsibilities. By connecting the humanities, sciences, fine arts, mathematics, technology, and social inquiry, students prepare for a community role that is as central to individual success as it is to a sustainable society. The School of Arts and Sciences delivers the General Education curriculum for all students in University College. Students of Arts and Sciences can pursue 18 different majors, 10 concentrations, and a wide array of minors. The arts and sciences curriculum serves as a gateway to many careers that already exist and prepares students for careers to come. Programs in the arts and sciences encourage critical thinking, empower students to try the new and dare the different, and help us understand the deepest forms of human expression. A creative mind is the highest recommendation for success in managing a complex world and living effectively in it.

LIBERAL ARTS PROGRAMS

Southern New Hampshire University's Liberal Arts programs embrace both passion and practicality within our many diverse undergraduate and graduate programs, such as Communication, Creative Writing, Digital Photography, English, Game Art and Development, Graphic Design, and History. Our mission is to guide our students' exploration of the human experience to enrich their journeys as dynamic global citizens. In doing this, we foster the development of practical skills, leading to success in their chosen professional paths. We cultivate a passionate community that practices respect, collaboration, creativity, leadership, and communication. Regardless of discipline area, a Liberal Arts education challenges students to expand their minds while encouraging empathy and self-reflection. Liberal Arts promotes objective examination of new ideas and thoughts, and helps incite creativity and the development of critical problem-solving skills. Liberal arts students sharpen their communication skills for different audiences in a variety of contexts and formats. Students learn to question assumptions in the search for truth. Emboldened by their liberal arts education, our students have a meaningful impact on their local and global communities, as they imagine and bring about a better future.

SOCIAL SCIENCES PROGRAMS

Southern New Hampshire University's Social Science programs empower and support students to transform their lives and the lives of those around them through high-quality and innovative educational practices that enrich their knowledge and skills in the helping professions. Students apply their knowledge of human behavior through our programs in Anthropology, Criminal Justice, Human Services, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology. Our programs provide students with insights at the individual, societal, and global levels in order to create a richer understanding of multiple perspectives and cultures. Students also hone their skills in analysis, critical thinking, problem-solving, communication, ethical reasoning, and professionalism through authentic assessments as well as experiential learning and internship opportunities. The Social Sciences department seeks to prepare students to achieve their short and long-term goals and make a positive, lasting impact within their communities in a variety of career paths and contexts.

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING AND MATHEMATICS (STEM) PROGRAMS

Southern New Hampshire University's STEM Department mission is to provide flexible, learner focused, industry driven, affordable, and accessible educational opportunities with unparalleled support for learners who otherwise would not have the opportunity to pursue a STEM career. The STEM Department encompasses many robust and challenging programs that enable learners to build confidence and skills, to grow as independent, critical thinkers and problem solvers, and ultimately to succeed in their goals. Our programs engage students' diverse learning styles through the use of projects, technology, industry tools, experiential learning, and environments that both adhere to our rigorous learning outcomes and are authentic to the relevant field of professional practice. We take great pride in never giving up on any student who is putting forth the effort to achieve his or her academic goals, and in providing our students with a transformative educational experience.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The School of Business at Southern New Hampshire University prepares students for successful careers through a commitment to exceptional teaching of business fundamentals, a relentless focus on the competencies and workplace skills that distinguish high performers in business, and partnerships with businesses and organizations that provide our students with workplace experience and an understanding of today's business environments. The basic knowledge in accounting, economics, finance, marketing, management, leadership, and operations that every business student must attain is no longer sufficient to succeed.

Students today need to be adaptable to succeed in a workplace where jobs that have never existed before are being created daily as new technologies provide opportunities and challenges. They need to understand the implications of a global marketplace that is fully connected and interdependent. And they need to approach every job as an entrepreneur, finding new and better ways of doing things. We pride ourselves on our exceptional faculty that provides a broad, relevant business education designed to launch our students on successful careers and lives.

BUSINESS PROGRAMS

Southern New Hampshire University's Business Programs are driven to increase access to higher education, affordability, and outcomes attainment by building reusable, stackable learning experiences that allow learners to achieve their educational and professional goals. The mission is centered on a commitment to relevant education and employment competencies that foster learner success. Our focus is to develop professionals who achieve success personally, in their careers, and for society as whole. The many diverse business programs prepare students for both academic and professional advancement opportunities in their chosen fields and disciplines. Our programs employ rigorous learning outcomes, real world scenarios, and the latest technologies relevant to the field of professional practice. We pride ourselves on providing our students with a transformative educational experience and never giving up on any student who is putting forth the effort to achieve his or her academic goals.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Founded in 2004, the School of Education, provides undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral programs to more than 700 students each year. The School of Education is committed to creating a better tomorrow by preparing students to be knowledgeable, reflective leaders, responsive to the needs of a diverse society.

The School of Education is strongly focused on teaching. Our faculty takes great pride in working closely with our students in a rigorous, practitioner-based program that leads to teacher certification. We have built strong partnerships with schools throughout the region that are committed to providing extensive clinical experiences in classrooms for our students as early as freshman year. Our recently redesigned undergraduate teacher education program will allow our teacher education candidates to spend their entire senior year in a school placement.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Southern New Hampshire University's Education department provides high quality graduate programs geared to the development of cognizant and influential educational leaders, able to address the needs of the 21st-century student within the K-12 and higher education administration realms. As educational leaders, learners in these programs build upon their existing knowledge, skills, abilities, and disposition to further enhance their capacity to address the academic and social-emotional needs of their students through the creation and implementation of positive change in curriculum, instruction, and programs. The Education Department prides itself on developing graduates who can excel professionally and address the diversified and ever-increasing globalized learning community needs.

DOCTORATE OF EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP
2020–2021

SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL ENGAGEMENT

SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL ENGAGEMENT

The School of International Engagement (SIE) develops and promotes global experiences through a wide range of academic, co-curricular and extra-curricular programming and offers high touch services aimed at meeting the needs of international learners, on-campus and at its overseas locations in Malaysia and Vietnam. The programs and services offered through the School of International Engagement foster a culture of pluralism and create environments where students are immersed with people, ideas and places that represent a wider world view. Programs and services are designed to engage learners in global perspectives, guide them to reflect on their place in the world, and position them to be active participants in an increasingly interconnected world.
